Working at Stillwaters...

I thought it would be fun to try something different for a blog this week. I just celebrated ten years of working here at Stillwaters and I can hardly believe how time has passed so quickly. I regularly write this blog about living here at Stillwaters but I thought it was time to write about what it's like to work here. I asked other staff in the office to tell me their thoughts on working here at Stillwaters Estates. Sherri has been here 14 years and Julie has been here a year. Both bring unique talents and perspectives to the job. They are a joy to work with and their solid work ethic and sense of humor make this office a great place to work. - Cindy

Over 14 years ago, Diana Williams offered me a job here at Stillwaters Estates. I was coming from a high-stress job and she thought this position might be a little boring but she hoped I would consider it. Well, I can attest this job has never been boring! And I have never regretted accepting the offer. Every day there is something new here at Stillwaters. The true blessing of the job is working with so many terrific people: co-workers and residents! Many have literally changed my life: by the way they look at aging; the example they set as they reach out to their friends and neighbors; their willingness to help those in need. It's inspiring! – Sherri

I LOVE MY JOB! I am so blessed. Every day working at Stillwaters is fun, different and exciting. Our residents are the most kind and caring people and I have enjoyed forming relationships with them. It is hard to believe it has been a year since I started working here. As the saying goes, time flies when you are having fun! – Julie
